

SUPERWOG

Superwog is an original comedy duo created by Sydney based brothers Theo and Nathan Saidden.

Since they started uploading their videos to Youtube in 2008 they have had incredible 195+ Million YouTube views and more than 1+Million subscribers. The Superwog Channel has gone from strength to strength whilst breaking records, earning awards and becoming one of Australia's most loved and watched Youtube channels.

Theodore (born 1988) and Nathan Saidden (born 1989) developed an interest in scripted comedy and acting early whilst attending Sydney's Trinity Grammar school, in particular the work of Monty Python, Sacha Baron Cohen and Chris Lilley.

Theo and Nathan wrote and performed in their first ever stage show that premiered at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival in 2013 completely selling out their performances and adding extra shows. The show went on to tour nationally selling out in all major cities including 4 sold out shows at Sydney's Enmore Theatre. Their second live show, Talk Shit Get Hit, was an even bigger success and for the first time Superwog took the show to both capital cities and regional towns.

Theo and Nathan returned with their third live show, Fake It Till You Make It, which toured Australia's Comedy Festivals before hitting the road again at the end of 2017 for a national tour.

Superwog were chosen to be part of the Google / Screen Australia's Skip Ahead initiative which gives YouTube creators the opportunity to branch into long form video. Through this initiative Superwog released their first feature length episode which immediately shot to the #1 trending spot on YouTube (Australia). It hit a staggering 1 million views in a little over three days, with audiences from all over the globe tuning in.

In October 2018 they hit mainstream television as they released a 6 part series that screened on ABC and also went live on YouTube, with the series consistently trending on #1 and reaching a staggering 15+Million views.

2019 will see them hit the stage, touring dates around Australia with an outrageously hilarious live show.
