BRODI SNOOK

COMEDIAN AND PROBABLY YOUR EX GIRLFRIEND

Hailing from small town Western Australia, Brodi Snook has been based in the UK since 2010. Brodi began her comedy career in 2014 by becoming a two-time RAW Comedy state finalist and in the same year made her mark on the international stage, reaching the final of the prestigious So You Think You're Funny at the Edinburgh Fringe. In 2017 she toured Switzerland and was heard on BBC Radio 4 Extra as part of BBC New Comedy Awards.

Brodi has since performed sold out solo shows at festivals across both hemispheres, most recently enjoying a successful debut at the Edinburgh Fringe with her latest show 'Handful', making it onto the UK Telegraph's list of Best Comedy Shows for 2019 and in addition being named in their Top 40 Jokes of the festival. Furthermore, the Chortle Awards announced Brodi as the winner of Best Newcomer 2020. Brodi has also completed a run of shows in Norway and supported Ardal O'Hanlon on his 2019/2020 UK tours. In December 2019 Brodi was invited by the BBC World Service to appear on The Arts Hour New Year International Comedy Show and in November made her television debut as part of Just For Laughs Sydney. Brodi went on to join the writing cast from Australian Sketch Comedy Series - Kinne Tonight (S2).

Now a favourite on the club circuit, regularly gigging all over the UK and Australia, Brodi continues to build a strong reputation world wide as one to watch.

'Snook could well be going places' THE TELEGRAPH

'A sharp comic with an astringent wit & jagged attitude' CHORTLE (UK)

'Lovely, smart, understated stuff from a future star' ARDAL O'HANLON
