Stand-up Comedian. Radio Host. Actor. Dickhead

Nick Cody's style of easy going comedy sees him consistently selling out shows and over-achieving his way around the globe, all the while becoming a regular fixture on TV and radio at home in Australia.

Boasting a solid fan base of Cody devotees at home and abroad, he has also sold out shows whilst racking up rave reviews, not only at every comedy festival here in Australia, but also the Edinburgh Fringe Festival & the Soho Theatre in London. He also has performed numerous times at the invite-only Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal, as well as the New York Comedy Festival & Johannesburg Comedy Festival.

On top of his recently televised stand-up special "What Of It?" (ABC), Nick has already amassed a plethora of Australian & international TV credits, as a stand-up (CONAN/Melbourne Comedy Festival OXFAM Gala/Opening Night Allstars Gala/Comedy Up Late/Just For Laughs), a panelist (The Project/Have You Been Paying Attention/Talking 'Bout Your Generation Hughesy We Have a Problem/AFL's The Kick) and as an actor (Please Like Me/KINNE/The Wizards Of Aus). He makes his feature film debut this year in the Australian movie "The Merger"

Nick's popularity rose even further abroad after making his US television debut on Conan O'Brien's late night talk show (becoming only the fourth Australian to do so) and he also became one of only a handful of Aussies to be invited to perform stand-up on the US television network, Comedy Central.

Cody was invited by the Australian Defence Force to perform for the troops overseas and absolutely loved it. He has made numerous trips to Afghanistan & the UAE and even performed onboard the HMAS Melbourne whilst it was at sea.

Nick became the face of Carlton Dry in 2018, after Carlton United Breweries made the red bearded wonder their very own Ambassador, appearing on many commercials for the brand and featuring on their massive State of Origin ad campaign. More recently Cody had his dreams come true promoting his hometown Melbourne to the world as part of Visit Victoria 2019 campaign with UFC Featherweight King Alex Volkanovski. Toward the end of 2019 Nick dove head first into a Visit Vegas Campaign created by Virgin and Delta Airlines, making "The King of The Sky" a happy Dad.

In 2019, Nick joined the Triple M team in Brisbane as a host on The Big Breakfast show on weekdays which has since rated as the #1 Radio show in Brisbane in 2020.

No stranger to the podcast world; you can now hear Nick and Luke Heggie on new podcast Midflight Brawl which is currently sitting at #41 on iTunes. In earlier days Nick released 'Crushin' it with Nick Cody' and 'Something for the drive home' podcast with Bart Freebairn, churning out over 200 episodes.

Whether you see him perform live, catch his big head on TV or tune in to one the many radio shows or podcasts he is a part of, a night with Cody is a night with a mate – get on board.
